c) for the 3rd cycle (doctorat).

LANGUAGE OF STUDY

In order to promote the Romanian language and culture among foreign citizens, the beneficiaries of scholarships granted by the Romanian state should study only in the Romanian language. The candidates who do not know Romanian are offered one supplementary preparatory year to study the language.

STEPS TO SUBMIT THE APPLICATION FILES

Application files must be submitted through diplomatic missions.
Application files submitted by post or directly to the MFA or to the ME, as well as application files received after the announced deadline will not be taken into consideration.

APPLICATION CALENDAR

The registration period normally begins in November each year. The candidate should enquire about the enrolment calendar at the diplomatic mission.
The deadline for submitting the application files is established by each diplomatic mission.
Foreign diplomatic missions accredited in Bucharest will submit their application files to the MFA – Public Diplomacy, Cultural and Scientific Directorate (DDPCS), accompanied by a verbal note in March the following year.

PROCEDURE FOR FILE ANALYSIS AND SELECTION OF SCHOLARS

The MFA checks the application files and presents the files that are eligible to the MFA Selection Board.
The files selected by the MFA Commission will be forwarded to the ME Selection Board.
The members of the two commissions evaluate the application files according to the scientific competencies of the candidates, as well as the chosen field of study.
The Boards will approve, within the number of places, the list of accepted candidates.
